- 2. Our service to you. You will not receive advice or a recommendation from us. We may ask some questions to narrow down the selection of products that we will provide details on. You will then need to make your own choice about how to proceed. We only offer After the Event (ATE) insurance. The policy is provided by Hamilton Insurance DAC. We deal with all aspects of assessment, underwriting and policy management. We will assess your case and if it meets our eligibility requirements and is within our risk tolerance, we will provide you with a quote. If you decide to go ahead with a policy we will place your insurance business under a binding authority for and on behalf of the insurer (Hamilton Insurance DAC). We act as an agent of the insurer in relation to the coverage proposed. The insurer has outsourced to us certain work related to the administration of your contract. We do not offer advice in relation to tax
- 3. Quotations. Our quotations will, typically, be valid for a period of 30 days from the date of issue, unless stated otherwise.
- 4. Disclosure of information. Your responsibilities will vary according to whether your policy is a 'Consumer Insurance Contract' or a 'Commercial Contract'.

A 'Consumer Insurance Contract' is an insurance policy for an individual who needs the policy wholly or mainly for purposes unrelated to a trade, business or profession.

A 'Commercial Contract' is an insurance policy that is needed wholly or mainly for the purposes of a trade, business or profession.

It is your responsibility to provide complete and accurate information to insurers when you take out your insurance policy, throughout the life of your policy, when you renew your insurance and when you claim. It is important that you ensure that all statements you make in response to any request for information from insurers are full and accurate and that you do not make any misrepresentation or leave anything out when asked. You must check any form that you sign or any statement of facts relating to your policy. Reckless, deliberate or even careless mistakes could result in your insurance company refusing to deal with all or part of a claim.

We will point out significant features and benefits, and significant or unusual exclusions or limitations, and answer any questions you may have regarding the insurance contract. However, it is impractical to explain all the terms and conditions at the outset. It is your responsibility to read the Policy Document and any other information provided, and if there is anything that you do not understand it is important that you contact us for an explanation.

In addition, when entering into a 'Commercial Contract', please note that if you fail to disclose any material information to your insurers, this could invalidate your insurance cover and could mean that part or all of a claim is not paid. If you are unsure whether information is 'material' you should disclose it.

- 5. Our Remuneration. We will receive our remuneration by one or more of the following methods:
  - A fee or administration payment which will be payable by you and will be agreed with you in advance of payment.
  - A commission payment from the insurer of your policy which is included in the premium you pay.
  - We may charge fees for additional services which we carry out on your behalf. Any additional fees will be agreed with you in advance.
- 6. Awareness of policy terms. When a policy is issued, you are strongly advised to read it carefully, as it is that document, the schedule and any certificate of insurance that is the basis of the insurance contract you have purchased. If you are in doubt over any of the policy terms and conditions, please seek our advice promptly.
- 7. Charges and Fees. In certain circumstances we may charge a policy production fee, cancellation fee and/or a mid-term adjustment/duplicate documentation fee. Any fee payable will be advised and agreed prior to inception of cover and advised during any adjustment/duplication/cancellation process.
- 8. Commission Disclosure – Commercial Contract Customers. You are entitled at any time to request information regarding any commission which we may have received as a result of placing your insurance business.

9. Holding Money. We are governed by strict rules pertaining to client money, set down by the FCA. The FCA rules are designed to protect you in the event that an insurance intermediary fails or is unable to transfer:
- any premium money it has received from you to the insurer; or
  - any claims or return premium monies that it has received from the insurer to you.

All client money will be held by the parent company of Bennett Gould & Partners (Dorset) Limited, Bennett Gould & Partners Limited (FCA No: 306850) and will be kept separate from their own money with an approved bank segregated in a client bank account designated as subject to a non-statutory trust. Under a non-statutory trust they are entitled to use client money to make advances of credit, for example to pay another client's premium before the premium has been received from the other client and to pay claims and premium refunds to a client before such monies have been received from the insurer. They may earn interest on monies held, which will be retained by them. You may notify us if you do not wish your money to be held in this way, otherwise we will assume that we have your consent to hold your money in a non-statutory trust account. We do however still remain responsible to you in respect of your money.

When Bennett Gould & Partners (Dorset) Limited act as agents for the insurer for the collection of premiums and payment of claims and refunds of premiums then these are treated as being received by the insurer when received in the Bennett Gould & Partners Limited client bank account and that any claims money or premium refund is treated as received by you when it is actually paid over to you. There are occasions where such transactions are restricted (for example, to receiving premiums only) and we will tell you if this is the case.

10. Customer protection information. It is always our intention to provide you with an exceptional level of customer service at all times. If there are occasions when we do not meet your standards, please contact us immediately. A complaint can be made by telephone, in writing or by email. Your complaint will be handled in accordance with the FCA Rules. We treat every complaint very seriously and aim to resolve each complaint fairly and promptly.
